Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

MARY HAD A LITTLE LAND.

Mary had a little land;
The soil was very poor;
But still she kept it all on hand,
And struggled to get more.

She held her land until the day
The people settled down;
Till where a wilderness had been
Grew up a thriving town.

Then Mary rented out her plot
(She would not sell, you know,
But waited patiently about
For prices still to grow.

They grew as population came
And Mary raised the rent;
With common food and raiment now
She would not be content.

She built herself a mansion fine,
Had luxuries galore;
But every time more people came
She raised the rent some more.

"What makes the land keep Mary so?"
The common people cry.
"Why Mary owns the land, you know,"
The knowing ones reply.

There are persons who think a lot owner can build on his lot in the city just what he pleases. That's a mistake. Owners of adjoining property have a few rights left in reserve. Besides, there's a special provision in regard to the location of butcher-shops, slaughter-houses, glue factories, breweries, distilleries, livery stables, blacksmith shops and foundries.

The Editor is indebted to the thoughtfulness, good taste, artistic skill and general cleverness of Messrs. Lewis M. McCarthy and J. D. Dye for a handsomely engraved and beautifully polished paper weight, a memento of the Opera-house bell. This bell was cast originally in 1854 and recast in 1884, but went down to destruction in the memorable Opera-house fire January 30th, 1896.

If you have a dull pain about the eyeball, or if, when reading, the letters seem to run together, call and be relieved. We charge nothing for examination, and guarantee satisfaction in every case.

What the State Board of Equalization Did to Mason County.

The humbug "State Board of Equalization" at Frankfort,—which never saw an acre of Mason county land nor a house in Maysville, and yet knows more about them than their owners or the County or City Assessors,—has gotten in its fine work again.

At its recent session the County Board of Equalization, after adjusting a number of inequalities, made a horizontal reduction on the assessment of 20 per cent. all along the line.

And now comes the State Board and adds 35 per cent. on farm lands and personally and 30 per cent. on town lots—a net increase over the original assessment of 15 per cent. on the former and of 10 per cent. on the latter.

Ever since its existence THE LEDGER has vigorously denounced the folly and injustice of the Frankfort machine, which acts almost wholly upon suppositions and conjectures.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,
